DOCKET ENTRY TEXT

Bond hearing held. Government's oral motion to detain defendant is granted as discussed in open court. As explained in detail in open court at the conclusion of the bond hearing, the Government has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that there is no condition or set of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's attendance at trial. The Government has not argued that the defendant would pose a danger to the community if released on bond. Defendant's oral motion for release on bond is denied without prejudice to its refiling.
